

RAISE THE ROOF!

SPECIAL PINEHURST FUND RAISER

After a great run at LLT this spring, we travel once again to the North Carolina beaches as we bring back this deliciously funny southern comedy. All of our original cast returns for this special fund raiser for our new Pinehurst Room.

Imagine the sassy gals of STEEL MAGNOLIAS, DESIGNING WOMEN and GOLDEN GIRLS all wrapped up in one hilarious comedy and you'd have THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB! Five Southern ladies that were on their college swim team have remained life-long friends and meet every summer at a North Carolina beach cottage to get free from husbands, kids and jobs. You'll see them age through their 40s, 50s and 70s as they dish about their loves, meddle in each others lives and laugh 'til they cry.

Our million dollar Pinehurst Room Fund Raiser Drive is approaching the 20% mark, and we'll continue to raise funds so we can hopefully kick off the construction in the next year! Consider a donation and have your name on the engraved tiles on the Wall of Honor in the new room. For more information, check out our website at LaurelLittleTheatre.com

An Elton John Musical! A Dolly Parton Musical! Two Southern Comedies! A Favorite Kids' Musical! A Dracula Halloween Thriller!

DISNEY'S AIDA

Tony Awards, National Theatre Awards, Grammy Award!
Aug. 1-4 & 10-11, 2013 • Directed by Lacy Cockrell

Our first stop traveling around the world is to the pyramids of Egypt where the story of the love of a boy and a girl from opposing tribes was first told in Verdi's famous opera that made Laurel's own Leontyne Price famous when she played the Princess Aida. She recently wrote a children's book of the story, and Sir Elton John used that book as the basis of his pop musical that features his hit song "Written In the Stars" that became a chart topper for Leanne Rimes. His fun score mixes all kinds of music from pop, reggae and gospel with influences from Motown to Middle Eastern. Join LLT for exciting music, knock-out voices, lots of humor and a tear-jerker of an ending!

DRACULA

Halloween Thriller!
October 31 & November 1-3, 2013
Directed by Sam Buchanan

Then we're off to the Transylvanian hills of Romania and the British seashore for a special Halloween production based on the classic Bram Stoker cult thriller. The world famous novel first appeared in 1897, and this stage version is a Gothic screamfest jam-packed with plenty of thrills and chills and special effects that will keep you on the edge of your seat. Join in as Professor Van Helsing and his comrades hunt down and destroy the cunningly evil Count Dracula. Steel your nerves, break out the garlic, don your fangs and get ready to scream!

DRIVING MISS DAISY

Award-Winning Southern Classic!
February 13-16, 2014

Directed by Shana Riles & Brenda Shows Parker
After Transylvania, we head back to the 1950's south in Atlanta. We first presented this now-classic play back in 1991 with Brenda Shows Parker and Michael Marks in the two lead roles, and both of them will be back as we revisit Miss Daisy and her chauffeur Hoke. Set in the 1950s, DRIVING MISS DAISY is a warm-hearted and humorous story of the unlikely relationship between an aging, crotchety white Southern lady and a proud, soft-spoken black man. This will be a lovely and sentimental Valentine's Week production that will make you laugh and cry!

9 TO 5 THE MUSICAL!

Dolly Parton's Award-Winning Musical
April 24-27 & May 2-3, 2014
Directed by Frankie Bennett & Wess Hughes

We wrap up our season traveling to a 1970's corporate office in the fun Dolly Parton musical 9 TO 5. Its first appearance was the hit 1980 movie that Dolly wrote the theme song for and starred in. Just a couple of years ago, she penned an entirely new country-flavored pop score for a hilarious Broadway production that is just now starting to appear at community theatres around the country. For a fun twist, Dolly herself appears in the production to narrate the story. Join Violet, Doralee and Judy as they deal with their male chauvinist boss and put him in his place - literally!

CINDERELLA • ANNUAL SUMMER LLT KIDS' CAMP • MAY 30 - JUNE 8, 2014

Our annual Kids' Camp will take us to a kingdom far, far away. A brand new production of Rodgers & Hammerstein's CINDERELLA is running on Broadway right now, and our local kids will also get the chance to work on this show in a ten day summer workshop. It's the story that's so well known from TV versions that starred Julie Andrews in the 1950s, Lesley Anne Warren in the 1960's and Mississippi-born singer Brandy along with Whoopi Goldberg and Whitney Houston in the 1990's version. Our annual Summer Kids' Camp is an intensive one week workshop where students have a memorable time learning the audition and rehearsal process and then will end the week with performances of CINDERELLA. Pre-registration is required early next spring since our camp sells out in advance and auditions for leads will take place in late April. Make sure you're on our email newsletter list to get early notice when registration opens!
