THE TONY WINNING BEST MUSICAL!!!

Dolly Levi is a ‘matchmaker’ who meddles hilariously in everyone’s lives – and she’s on a hunt for a match for herself! She’s got her eyes on Horace Vandergelder – the “well-known half-a-millionaire.”

Dolly made Carol Channing a star way back in the 60s, and last year, Bette Midler broke records with a sold-out NYC revival.

When it opened in New York in 1964, it won a record-high ten Tony Awards, including Best Musical. It also became one of the longest running shows ever on Broadway.

Featuring a huge cast under the direction of Will Hodges and musical director Michelle Howells, it’s sure to be a sell-out family favorite to kick off LLT’s brand new and exciting 59th Season!

THE CLASSIC
NEIL SIMON COMEDY!

Neil Simon, America’s favorite comedy writer, capped his long career with the three play “Eugene Trilogy” that was basically the story of his own life.

BRIGHTON BEACH MEMOIRS dealt with Eugene’s coming-of-age in 1930s Brooklyn, and BILOXI BLUES covered his time in boot camp in the 1940s.

Now, the story continues in the 1950s as Eugene, and his brother Stanley, begin their careers writing comedy – first for radio, then in the early days of television and on to Broadway!

Directed by Rick Youngblood, this play stands on its own as one of Simon’s best. Touching, funny and moving – this one’s not to be missed!

A SOUTHERN-FRIED TRAILER PARK COMEDY!

The residents of the smallest trailer park in Texas – just four doublewides – are thrown for a loop when they find out the nearby town of Tugaloo is going to annex them.

Mayhem escalates when they realize if they’re gonna have a snowball’s chance to stop it, they need to secede from Texas!

‘Git’ on your Stetson and favorite cowboy boots and come on over to the new town of Doublewide – where life is double the fun, double the joy and just “a hoot and a holler” to double the belly laughs! YEEEEEHAW!

Written by the same authors of LLT hits THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB and REX’S EXES, and under the direction of Frankie Bennett, it’ll be another of our LLT audiences’ favorite “Southern Comedies.”

SCRUMDIDDLYUMPTIOUS FAMILY FAVORITE!!!

Lovable Charlie Bucket and four other kids find lucky ‘Golden Tickets’ that win them a lifetime of candy – and a tour of Willy Wonka’s magical Chocolate Factory.

Wonka is secretly looking for an heir to take over, and Charlie might be just the “ticket.” Featuring famous songs like “The Candy Man” and “Pure Imagination” – as well as the bright orange Oompa Loompas, it’s guaranteed to delight everyone’s sweet tooth!

Our annual Kids’ Camp is a week of rehearsals and workshops under the direction of Katelyn Bryant and it ends with performances from 100 lovable young actors that will AMAZE you!
