THE SHOW MUST TRULY GO ON After a long long 'intermission' due to COVID, LLT returns with our 60th ANNIVERSARY SEASON! We'll honor your leftover punches from last season, but hope that everyone will help our local community theatre by rejoining LLT this year - and then use those old punches to bring a friend. LLT REALLY NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT TO BE ABLE TO OFFER OUR PRODUCTIONS AND KEEP UP OUR 93-YEAR-OLD ARABIAN THEATRE!

A SOUTHERN-FRIED TRAILER PARK COMEDY!

The residents of the smallest trailer park in Texas - just four doublewides - are thrown for a loop when they find out the nearby town of Tugaloo is going to annex them.

Mayhem escalates when they realize if they're gonna have a snowball's chance to stop it, they need to secede from Texas!

'Git' on your Stetson and favorite cowboy boots and come on over to the new town of Doublewide - where life is double the fun, double the joy and just 'a hoot and a holler' to double the belly laughs! YEEEEEHAW!

Written by the same authors of LLT hits THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB and REX'S EXES, and under the direction of Frankie Bennett, it'll be another of our LLT audiences' favorite 'Southern Comedies.'

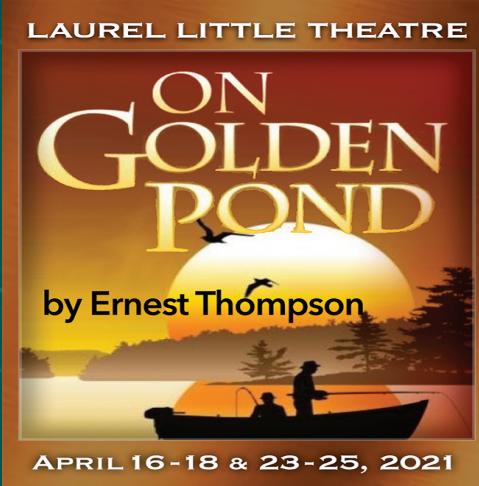

A SWEET MISSISSIPPI CLASSIC!!!

In 1941, Mississippi author Eudora Welty wrote this short story that became one of her most popular. It was inspired by a photo Welty had taken of a woman ironing clothes in the back of a small southern post office.

It's a one-woman show of 'Sister,' the postmistress of the teeny tiny post office in 'China Grove, Mississippi,' telling the story of her very very southern family - Papa-Daddy, Stella-Rondo and Uncle Rondo. She explains all her trials and tribulations with her mad-capped folks.

LLT alumni, Christy Liverett, will be playing 'Sister' for us - and she's already started learning all those lines so she'll be ready for the funny one-act one-hour-long winter performance directed by Jessica Shaidnagle.

COVID SAFETY Keeping safety in mind as a top priority for our audiences and our volunteers, extra precautions this year include: limited audiences under 50% capacity with marked off rows and an empty seat between each couple/family, masks (bring your own, please!) and distancing required, no admittance with visible illness/coughs/sneezing, temperature checks at the door and hydrostatic disinfectant cleaning of the theatre before each performance.

A LOVE STORY FOR ALL AGES!!!

A love story of an older couple - cantankerous tart-tongued retiree Norman Thayer, and his supportive wife Ethel - living out their golden years as they spend summers at their peaceful Maine vacation home on the shores of Golden Pond.

Their daughter brings her wise-cracking 'too cool' soon-to-be stepson to stay with them - and the comedy, the teen angst and the drama all begins.

LLT's Catherine & Steven Nowicki plays the Thayers - directed by Frankie Bennett.

The 1979 Broadway production won Tony and Drama Desk awards. A well-received 1981 movie version with Henry Fonda, Katherine Hepburn and Jane Fonda garnered ten Academy Award nominations and three Oscar wins.

SCRUMDIDDLYUMPTIOUS FAMILY FAVORITE!!!

Lovable Charlie Bucket and four other kids find lucky 'Golden Tickets' that win them a lifetime of candy - and a tour of Willy Wonka's magical Chocolate Factory.

Wonka is secretly looking for an heir to take over, and Charlie might be just the 'ticket.' Featuring famous songs like The Candy Man and Pure Imagination, as well as the bright orange Oompa Loompas, it's guaranteed to delight everyone's sweet tooth!

Our annual Kids' Camp will be a week of rehearsals and workshops under the direction of Rebecca Green, and it ends with performances from 100 lovable young actors that will AMAZE you!
