THE ADDAMS FAMILY is a family musical filled with ghouls, fools, and all things macabre. Bringing to real life the characters of the early television show and cartoon strips, this production has freaky, funky, and out of this world spooks, as young Wednesday Addams falls in love with a 'normal' guy; and tries to pass her parents off as the same! Join Morticia and Gomez, Pugsley, Wednesday, Uncle Fester, Lurch, and all the other creepy folks as they sing and dance their way under the full moon and among the tombstones! Come meet the family...we'll leave the lights off for you! Directed by Wess Hughes and Frankie Bennett OCTOBER 16 - 19, 2014

Louisa May Alcott's classic novel, LITTLE WOMEN, comes to life on stage as a delightful musical. Follow the adventures of the March family - sisters Jo, Meg, Beth, and Amy, as their mother, Marmee, keeps the home in order as their father serves as a Union Army chaplain in the Civil War. Grumpy Aunt Josephine, Professor Bhaer, and their loving neighbor, Laurie, all play prominent roles in the lives of the sisters. The beautiful musical score of this play is a perfect complement to this age-old story.

Directed by Lacy Cockrell DECEMBER 4 - 7, 2014

THE GLASS MENAGERIE by Mississippi native Tennessee Williams, is an award winning drama set in the deep South of the early 1900's. A semi-autobiographical account of a time in the author's life, the play is a fascinating character study of himself and the members of his immediate family: his mother, his sister, and her suitor. Their personal struggles are seen plainly in this poignant story of a family in crisis.

Directed by Sam Buchanan FEBRUARY 26 - MARCH 1, 2015

RED, WHITE AND TUNA is the third in a series of comedies (preceded by Greater Tuna and A Tuna Christmas and followed by Tuna Does Vegas), each set in the fictional town of Tuna, Texas, the "third-smallest" town in the state. The plays are at once an affectionate comment on small-town, Southern life and attitudes but also a withering satire of same. The plays are notable in that two men play the entire cast of over twenty eccentric characters of both genders and various ages. You'll remember these crazy guys from our previous production of A Tuna Christmas.

Directed by Catherine Nowicki APRIL 23 - 26, 2015

Even though our Kids' Camp Production is not a part of the regular season membership, it's always a crowd pleaser! In ALADDIN, JR., our wonderful young actors welcome you to Agrabah, City of Enchantment, and the fantastic tale of the street rat who became a prince! Join Jasmine, the Sultan, the Genie and the rest of the kids, and they will amaze you with what they can do with only a week of rehearsals! You'll enjoy all the favorite songs, including "Arabian Nights", "A Whole New World" and "Friend Like Me."

Directed by Katelyn Bryant
